A warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Bolton Wanderers for tonight's F.A.Cup First Round replay - our third meeting in less than a month. The Lancashire side have made a steady start to the season with 7 goal Trevor Morgan leading the way, and they currently sit in a mid-table position. This is our first post-war pairing in the competition - hardly surprising as Bolton have spent all but 7 of their illustrious 106 years history in the higher divisions.

Amazingly, Saturday's goalless draw represented our First F.A.Cup clean sheet since Sheffield United were defeated 1-0 at Saltergate back in 1980 - that's 15 cup ties ago. You have to go back to a second round replay at Walsall in 1976 to find the last time the Spiteites have kept their goal intact on their travels. A more frightening statistic is that on the 3 occasions since 1980 on which we have managed to hold out for a draw away from home, we have gone on to lose the replay here at the Recreation Ground. Let's hope for a change of fortune this evening.

SPIRE REVIEW

As you will no doubt have noticed by now, tonight's programme is smaller than usual. This is due to the financial implications of preparing an issue for a provisional game. Thanks for buying a copy - the normal 28 page magazine will return for our next home match.

AWAY TRAVEL

The supporters Club are planning to arrange transport for the Reading match. Tickets are available now price £4.50, departure time 10.30 am. Don't forget the Sherpa Van Trohpy tie at Notts County next Tuesday. The coaches for this one leave at 6 pm., fare £2.00.

VALE AGAIN

The prize for the winners of tonight's match is a 2nd round home clash with 3rd division front runners Port Vale.

MISTY BLUES!

Chesterfield Boys beat both Lea Valley and the fog at Saltergate last Wednesday to make it through to the final 32 in the English Schools F.A.Trophy. After thrashing Nottingham 5-1 and Worksop 10-0 in the earlier rounds, the lads won through 4-1 with goals from Barrett Noble (2 penalties) Jamie Evans and David Brocklehurst. The youngsters will be emulating the town's professional side in the next round as they've been drawn at Bolton.

HART BEAT

We would not be here at Saltergate tonight if it were not for the team producing such a committed display at Burden Park on Saturday and deservedly having the chance to savour some F.A.Cup glory.

I was appointed as Chesterfield's manager in the wake of the club's 5-0 drubbing at Bolton 3 weeks ago and understandably spirits were low. Two subsequent league defeats under my control show that in football a magic wand cannot be waved to alter a club's fortunes. The players I inherited were told precisely that when I arrived. However, encouraging signs have been present in all three of our games together and the players have responded to what I am asking. I hope they can enjoy the best possible rewards by becoming a winning team.

We almost acheived our vital first victory at Bolton in the cup on Saturday, but the draw at least offers us something to build on now. I cannot promise miracles, but I sense the players are becoming aware of the standards I expect from my side. I am new to management, but I already have a clear picture of the quality of work I expect of everybody at the club.

You supporters also have a crucial role to play in our fight for survival in Division 3 and our F.A.Cup challenge. Your continued vociferous, loyal support is absolutely vital if we are to achieve anything together.

It is with genuine warmth that I welcome to Saltergate tonight an old cup opponent of mine, Bolton Manager, Phil Neal. During my days with Leeds and Nottingham Forest I opposed Phil on many occasions. I felt he never received the acclaim in the media he truly deserved, both at Club and international level.

I hope Phil will accept my praise when I describe him as one of the best professionals I have met during my career. I am just sorry we have to end his and Bolton's Cup dream tonight!!

IN TOWN TODAY: BOLTON WANDERERS

In these days of Third and Fourth Division football for Bolton Wanderers it's easy to forget that the Burnden Park club has lifted the world's most famous trophy on no less than 4 occasions and finished as beaten finalists a further 3 times. The Trotters won the F.A.Cup three times in an amazing seven year spell in the 1920's; West Ham were beaten 2-0 in the 1923 final, Manchester City went down to a single goal 3 years later and Portsmouth provided the hat-trick, 2-0 in 1929.

The 1950's saw Bolton's most famous player Nat Lofthouse capped 33 times for England and after losing out 4-3 to Blackpool in the classic final of 1953, Lofthouse enjoyed his finest moment in domestic football 5 years later when his 2 goals won the cup for his home town club against the mighty Manchester United.

DAVE FELGATE (GOALKEEPER)

First choice keeper Dave was an ever present last season along with being voted player of the year. Born in Blaenau Ffestiniog, he has been capped by Wales at Schoolboy, Under 21 and full level, and actually served his apprenticeship with Bolton. Initially, his only League experience came during loan spells with Rochdale and Crewe. Dave joined Lincoln in 1980 and played 198 League games for the Imps before moving to Grimsby after a loan spell in 1985. He joined Bolton again in February 1986 on loan, and the move became permanent in February 1987. Age 28.

PHIL BROWN (RIGHT BACK)

No, not the former Chesterfield striker, although this full-back does have an attacking mind. A newcomer to Bolton this term, Phil cost £16,000 from Halifax. He started his career at Hartlepool in 1978 and played over 200 games for the north easterners before joining Halifax in 1985. Age 29.

BARRY COWDRILL (LEFT BACK)

Another newcomer this term, Barry joined the Trotters from West Brom during the close season. He started his career with the Throstles in 1979 and ended his spell with them 131 games later. Barry also had a loan period with Rotherham last term. Age 31.

DEAN CROMBIE (CENTRAL DEFENCE)

Joined Lincoln in 1976 from local side Ruston Sports and made 33 appearances before joining Grimsby in 1978. There followed 320 games for the Mariners before Dean moved to Burnden Park last season. Age 31.

MARK WINSTANLEY (CENTRAL DEFENCE)

A product of the Y.T.S, Mark made his first team debut while still on the scheme at Bournemouth back in March 1986. He made his home debut against rivals Blackpool, and Phil Neal was quick to reward him with a full-time contract. Mark has made the number six shirt his own this season. Age 20.

NICKY BROOKMAN (MIDFIELD)

Manchester born Nicky had spells with Newport, Aston Villa and Wrexham as a youngster, but made his League debut in April 1987 after joining this evenings visitors. Made 26 appearances last season. Age 20.

STUART STORER (MIDFIELD)

Stuart made the headlines, when, as a relatively unknown youngster, he joined Everton as part of the deal that also took Wayne Clarke from Birmingham to Goodison Park. He started his career with one game for Mansfield in 1983-84 and last season had loan spells with Wigan and Bolton before joining the Trotters for £25,000. Age 21.

JULIAN DARBY (MIDFIELD)

Julian is a local player who has progressed considerably since his debut in March 1986. The former England Schoolboy International made 40 appearances last season. Age 20.

GARY HENSHAW (MIDFIELD)

Substitute against ourselves on Saturday, Gary was a newcomer at Bolton last season, after spending five seasons at Grimsby. Scored on his debut for the Trotters at Crewe last season. Age 23.

TREVOR MORGAN (CENTRE FORWARD)

An experienced striker whose league career began in 1980 when he joined Bournemouth from Leytonstone. 2 spells with Bournemouth brought 46 goals in 141 games, and were separated by a 6 goals in 12 game spell for Mansfield. He has since had 2 periods with Bristol City, one at Exeter and knocked in 24 goals in 55 games for Bristol Rovers. Trevor joined Bolton last season and scored 7 goals in 42 games. Age 32.

IAN STEVENS (FORWARD)

Malta born Ian joined the club last season after brief spells with Preston and Stockport, but managed just a couple of appearances. He has recently signed a new contract with the Club. Age 22.

MEET THE BOSS PHIL NEAL

Now 37 years of age, former England star Philip still dons his playing kit, however it is a lot less frequently these days. The Irchester born defender started his career with 186 games for Northampton before moving to Liverpool where he added another 455 League and 174 Cup appearances. Between seasons 1975-76 and 1984-85, Phil missed just one League game for the Anfield giants in a truly incredible spell of consistency. He joined Bolton in December 1985, and nine appearances last season took his League total for the club to 59.

MATCH POINTS

No doubt the 4840 spectators assembled at Burnden Park last Saturday were looking forward to a repeat of the recent league meeting when the Wanderers struck 5 times in a one sided affair. They were to be disappointed as Paul Hart's men turned in a courageous display which resulted in the Lancashire club's appearance at Saltergate for tonight's replay.

The Blues enjoyed the lions share of the possession in a comfortable opening 45 minutes against a home side looking shell-shocked from the previous week's 4-2 defeat at the hands of local rivals Bury. Kevin Arnott responded to the news that he is to retain the club captaincy with an outstanding effort while Les Hunter looked to be back to his old form following an 11 match absence from the first team.

Bolton began the second period in determined mood but for the first time this season the defence managed to soak up sustained pressure. The pattern was set now and as the Wanderers goal attempts became increasingly desperate, Chesterfield looked capable of breaking through on the counter attack. Dave Waller forced the save of the match from Felgate after a fine display of close control and Andy Morris was only inches with a looping header. Jim Brown had his moments at the other end but the blues best chances were saved for the closing minutes; Waller was faced with only the goalkeeper to beat following a horrendous back pass but he shot wide of the target, and the same player came within an ace of snatching a last minute winner. Although the end product was a goalless draw, this was a typical cup tie with end to end action throughout and tonight's return meeting could turn out to be a cracker.

Seven days earlier Chesterfield put in a similar effort at Sealand Road for no reward in a game which clearly illustrated the Blues current plight. After falling behind to an unfortunate fifth minute own goal from Darren Wood, (not Jamie Hewitt as was widely reported in the national press,) the Spireites went on to dominate the first half. Everyone in the ground must have expected referee Ron Groves to award a penalty when Kevin Eley was tripped in full flight but the only outcome was a booking for Kevin Arnott for voicing his protest. The travelling fans didn't have long to wait for something to celebrate however, a well worked free-kick ending with Bob Bloomer heading home his first goal of the season. Further chances came and went for all the forward players and by the time Chester regained the lead in the 58th minute the Blues could well have had the points wrapped up. As it was, sloppy defending let in Dale for a third goal 6 minutes from full-time and the final scoreline painted a misleading picture of the afternoon's events.

The most recent match here at Saltergate was over a fortnight ago when the new management team saw Bristol Rovers take the points. The Blues began brightly with Alleyne, Morris and Eley all coming close but after being penned in their own half for long spells, the Pirates grabbed the lead shortly before the interval through Purnell. The half-time pep talk lifted the Spireites but the cause was lost when the visitors scored again after 58 minutes through Mehew. A goalkeeping error led to the central defender recording his second and Rovers' third strike in the closing stages to leave the Blues rooted to the foot of the table.
